Owner JoAnn Carroll Prather stands in front of Blossom Villa, where clients recover from cosmetic surgery in luxury.

Michael Darden/The Californian

A stylish recovery

By Joe Cabaniss
Californian staff writer

Blossom Villa isn't for everyone, but neither is breast augmentation or a nose reshaping. But for those who can afford to plunk down thousands of dollars for cosmetic surgery — be it a tummy tuck or derriere lift — the luxurious villa may be just the spot to recover in style.

The lure here is quietude, privacy and personal attention, on 5½ acres in the rolling hills of Blossom Valley east of El Cajon.

Lush green lawns surrounded by bouganvillas dot the grounds, which also sport shaded outdoor patios, a swimming pool and an indoor spa.

The Mediterranean-style structure with red tiled roofs, houses two private and two semi-private suites, a formal living room, fireplace and large kitchen.

The rich and famous can be comfortable here, but celebrity status is not a prerequisite. Wealth will do.

However, even the not-so-rich can enjoy first-class private or semi-private rooms, with gourmet meals and limousine service for a mere $150 a day, says owner JoAnn Carroll Prather.

But those who stay at the villa also should be prepared to pay out-of-pocket, because insurance companies will not foot the bill.

Prather points out that Blossom Villa is not a nursing home, although nursing services can be arranged separately.

What it is is a private luxury residence, "designed to provide the finest in services and accommodations to persons who wish privacy and comfort following cosmetic surgery," according to literature supplied to guests.

> “Many people find that cosmetic surgery is more traumatic than they realized. Here people can rest and relax. . . . The important thing is that you are the center of attention here — you are the star.”
> JoAnn Carroll Prather

"This is a choice, and some individuals have either planned or saved for many years to come here," Prather said. "There is a need for this type of care and this does fill a gap."

Prather, whose family has owned and operated nursing homes in the East County for many years, began phasing out of the nursing home business after her father, Willie Carroll, died in 1981.

She opened the $1.5 million Blossom Villa last November with her mother, Neva, and daughter Jill. To date the residence has served about 18 clients, most of them single professsionals between the ages of 40 and 70. All but two have been from out of town.

Michael Darden/The Californian

The living room at Blossom Villa boasts a grand piano, as well as a host of other luxurious amenities for its clients recovering from plastic surgery.

"The biggest concern of guests is to have someone with them," Prather said. "Many people find that cosmetic surgery is more traumatic than they realized. Here people can rest and relax.

"It's a support system, rather than going home and your husband says, 'What happened to you?' The important thing is that you are the center of attention here — you are the star."

Guests often are referred to the villa through the Physicians Business Network, a group of plastic surgeons and opthalmologists, said Trish Hannon, the network's marketing director.

While people of average income may spend a few days at the villa without significantly taxing their bank account, those staying longer should be prepared to pay for the luxury.

The average length of stay is three to seven days, Prather said. The three-day package rate is $750 per person, but it includes a private room, TV, gourmet meals and other amenities, such as limo service, a personal hair dresser, manicurist, massage therapist and access to a video library.

The seven-day rate starts at $1,500 and includes all of the above. Overnight accommodations range from $150 to $250. Visa and Mastercard are welcome.

The limousine service will transport patients from surgery to the villa and back to the doctors office for checkups. But it also is available for patients who can't stay away from the shopping malls, even during recovery from surgery.

Those patients who make arrangements are whisked to Bullock's Department Store in Mission Valley, where they can shop in privacy with assistance from the store's personal shopper.

At mealtime the sky's the limit. Guests fill out a questionnaire in advance, listing their favorite meals, mineral water or fresh juice. Strict vegetarian diets also can be accommodated.

And what kinds of reviews has Blossom Villa received from its patrons? Raves, according to Prather.

"People tell me, 'I've ever been spoiled so much in my life,'" she said.

A 38-year-old Long Beach area flight attendant for U.S. Air who recently stayed at the villa after reconstructive facial and nose surgery, agreed.

"I like it real well," said the flight attendant, who asked not to be identified. "The doctor told me he could either do the surgery in the hospital, where I could stay for $1,000 a day, or he could do it at an outpatient surgery and I could recover here for $100 a day."

Another reason he selected the the villa was because of its privacy and personalized service.

"It's so secluded and people aren't looking at you when you're ugly," he said with a chuckle.

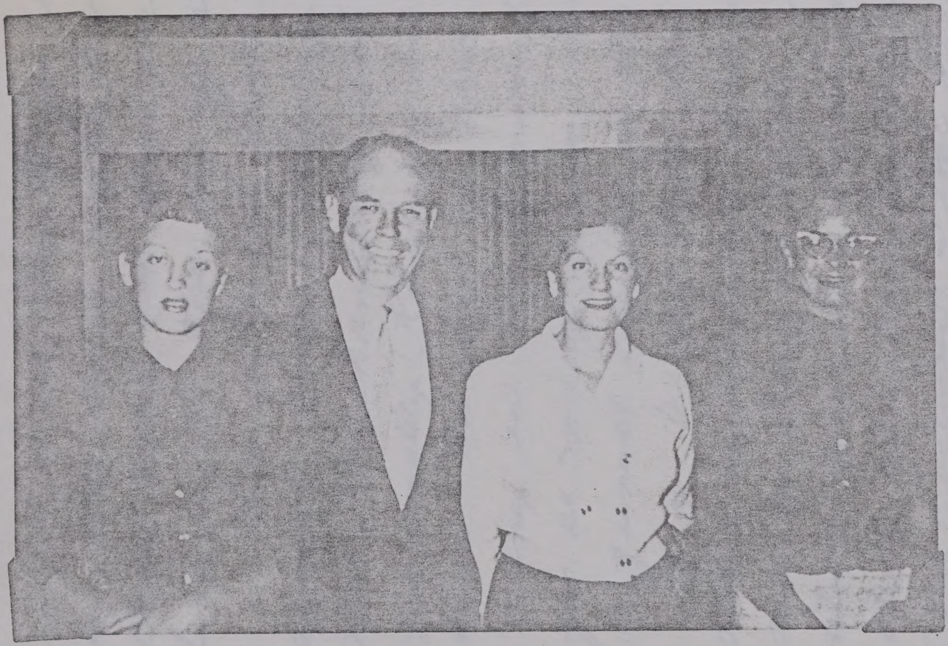
About 1960--El Cajon,
California



November 14, 1989

Dear Willie,

I will try to get this in the mail right away as Chris Called and said the dead line is to the cut off stage.

We attended Aunt Marg's service last Saturday and met Mr. handsome and Mr. Personality (Randy), just loved him. We had not seen so many in the Henson family for so many years. Too bad a funeral service is the reason.

My brother Bill had a hip socket replacement last april and is doing so well. He has retired from his school job but still cuts hair by appointment (old Customers). I love him dearly, he has mother's sweet ways.

I would like to place an order for four (4) books on the Gibbs family when it is published please let me know the cost and when I should send a check.

Love you,
Faiye

Dear Mary and Willie.

Thank you so much for your lovely letters I so appreciate you and all the work you two have given to the family project.

We especially enjoyed this Christmas season because Renee and her family are only twenty miles away. Teresa, Renee's daughter came home from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. to spend the holidays. she left for Minneapolis this morning at six a.m. she will spend the night there and leave tomarrow at four in the afternoon with twenty-nine other students to study in London, England four weeks, returning to St. Olaf to complete her second year.

Renee's son Wade is fifteen and in his second year of high school and is doing well he plays trumpet in the high school band in Poway. There are three hundred and forty students in the band and they have taken sweepstakes the last five years. Wade was so excited to be in a band that was selected to play for President Regan this fall when he came to San Diego. The band will be marching in the Rose Parade on Monday, in July 1989 they will go to Japan. We have enjoyed going to the concerts and band competitions.

We have a new addition to our family Cheryl's daughter, Penny Lynn Cangson Ripple gave birth to a boy.

Length 20 in.
Place of Birth:

Your question about Jose Alonzo Rosado, Renee's husband. Jose Alonzo Rosado
Birth Place: Washington D.C. (District of Columbia)

I must have made a mistake and left off the (D.C.) Lon's (meda Mother) was employed there for several years.

I have noticed in some of the material that my Mother was born in Comanchie, Texas we had always been told differently. Have you any other information on this? I am enclosing my birth certificate (copy) for this reason.

I have waited impatiently to hear from my friends the Hifons about their family history, last Sunday the Hiyons told (Mel) Forest that their aunt would get all their family history together and send it to him then my friends will call me. I will keep you posted.

Mary, you had ask about the Ed Newmans who went camping with Derwood, Marguerite, Herb and Lillie also us, they lived on the corner of Anza and Merritt Drive only one long block South of Washington St. not far from Fern and Red Kent. Our camping was done mostly in the 1950's some in early 1960. We never did any fishing with your mom and Dad. Fern and Christine went fishing with your dad.

I hope some of this will be of help to you.

Much love,
Faye

P.S.

A Senior Recital presented by Terésa Rosado

For years I wondered about life,
looking for the stabilizing force,
a constant that once found,

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It has been my pleasure to contract photo services from Teresa Rosado during the summer of 1988. Her name was given to me from a colleague who had seen some of her 4-H photography as well as having involved her on the 4-H State Congress Photo team.

Teresa was just the answer to my photo needs. She did four photo shots on site with me and worked long hours. Her results were admirable considering the somewhat chaotic conditions in which she was expected to capture unposed shots of close, emotive interaction between 4-H youth and their leaders.

Teresa displayed a high degree of maturity for one so young. She was self-directed and did what it took to get the job done. Anyone who considers her for employment will get the opportunity to work with one of the outstanding young adults of today. Teresa will go far in my estimation and I have had the opportunity to wprk with and observe young people for over 14 years as a Youth Development Specialist.

Sincerely,

Kathleen E. Vos

WAYLAND ACADEMY

Wayland Academy was founded in 1855 and named in honor of Dr. Francis Wayland, who was at the time President of Brown University. In 1860 the Academy became one of the nation's first coeducational, independent secondary schools. For many years a college division was operated, but the emphasis always has been on preparation for college. Each year virtually all of the Academy's graduates matriculate at four-year colleges or universities.

Wayland Academy sponsors one of the oldest Cum Laude Society chapters in the nation. Cum Laude is recognized as the independent school equivalent of Phi Beta Kappa. Wayland also holds the distinction of having admitted the first woman as a member of Cum Laude.

Today the Academy serves approximately 280 students from twenty-two states and twelve foreign countries; employs more than eighty people, including a professional staff of fifty; maintains a campus valued at 20 million dollars; holds an endowment of approximately four million dollars; and has an annual budget of 4.2 million dollars.

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

Academic regalia was first worn at a time when scholars also were clerics and wore the costume of the monastic orders. The hood originally was a cowl attached to the gown and could be slipped over the head for warmth. The cap, originally round, later became a square mortar-board.

Today the cap is the same for all degrees except for the tassel, which may be silver for the master's and gold for the doctoral degrees. The gowns differ according to the degrees. The doctor's gown is the fullest and most ornate, having three chevrons on each sleeve. In recent years, some American universities have followed the European custom of having doctoral gowns in the color of the university.

The hood also varies according to the degree. The velvet border of the hood indicates the area of study: dark blue is philosophy, brown is fine arts or architecture; drab is business; green is medicine; orange is engineering; pink is music; purple is law; scarlet is divinity or theology; white is arts or letters; golden yellow is science or science of engineering; lemon yellow is library science; while peacock is public administration or foreign service.

The hood is lined in silk with the colors representing the institutions which granted the degree.

The academic procession of Wayland Academy follows procedures established during the Middle Ages. Members of the platform party lead the procession and are followed by the faculty. Faculty members march in the order of their appointment to the Academy, with those of longest service entering first.

"A DAY WHICH WILL LIVE IN INFAMY"

"Yesterday, Dec. 7, 1941, America was suddenly and deliberately attacked on the Hawaiian Islands by naval and air forces of the Empire of Japan. Americans will remember the character of the onslaught against us, a date which will live in infamy. This form of treachery shall never endanger us again. The American people, in their righteous might, will win through to absolute victory, so help us God."

Whether the President calls for a flat declaration of war against Japan is not known, but leaders of Congress, shocked and angered by the Japanese attacks, were talking of war on not only Japan but on the entire Axis.

Plans for today's action were made last night in a White House conference at which the President, surrounded by his Cabinet and by Congressional leaders of both parties, went

JAPANESE CLAIM BIG U.S. LOSSES

TOKYO, Dec. 8 - Japanese Imperial Headquarters announced today the sinking of two United States battleships and a mine-sweeper, severe damage to four other American capital ships and four cruisers and the destruction of about 300 American planes in Japan's surprise blows at Hawaii, the Philippines and Guam.

Domei, the official news agency, quickly interpreted "these magnificent early gains" as giving Japan naval mastery over the United States in the Pacific, and said that any force the U.S. could muster now "would be regarded as utterly inadequate to accomplish any successful outcome in an encounter with the thus-far intact Japanese fleet."

100 SHIPS AT PEARL

HONOLULU Dec. 7 - In Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack this morning were about 100 U.S. ships, including eight battlewagons, 29 destroyers, and six cruisers.

Special to THE NEWS

HONOLULU, Dec. 7 - The mighty battleship USS Arizona sank today with its crew of 1,150 men entombed in the wreckage after taking five torpedo hits and countless aerial bombs from wave after wave of Japanese aircraft attacking Pearl Harbor.

The Arizona, moored helplessly along Battleship Row, buckled, and shattered when its forward powder magazine and boiler room exploded.

The mammoth ship was one of the eight battleships of the US Pacific Fleet docked in the harbor along Ford Island. All were struck hard with torpedos and bombs that triggered

GROUPED PLANES ARE EASY PREY FOR BOMBERS

HONOLULU, Dec. 7 - About 50 U.S. P-36 and P-40 fighter planes grouped together in front of their hangars at Wheeler Field were destroyed or badly damaged today by Japanese aircraft.

An undetermined number of US planes were also shattered on the ground at Hickam Field, near Pearl Harbor, and at Kaneohe Naval Air Station, on the windward side of the island of Oahu.

LATE BULLETINS

ONE OF THE MIRACLES OF THE DAY

HONOLULU, Dec. 7 - Eighteen B-17s arriving today from the mainland were greeted by a scene of chaos and confusion—and by Japanese Zeros—yet all of the four-engine bombers managed to land safely at various airfields.

LEXINGTON, ENTERPRISE ARE AT SEA

HONOLULU, Dec. 7 - Two of the U.S. aircraft carriers assigned to Pearl Harbor - the Lexington and Enterprise - were at sea during the Japanese attack today. The third carrier, Saratoga, is being repaired on the West Coast.

The Enterprise, it was learned, managed to send 18 dive-bombers to Pearl Harbor during the height of the raid. Later half of the planes refueled at Kaneohe Naval Base, loaded 500-pound bombs and went looking for enemy warships.

dell Hull today accused Japan of making a "treacherous and utterly unprovoked attack" upon the United States and of having been "infamously false and fraudulent" by preparing for the attack on Pearl Harbor while conducting diplomatic negotiations with the professed desire of maintaining peace.

Even before he knew of the attack, Mr. Hull had vehemently brought the diplomatic negotiations to a virtual end and with an outburst against Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, the Japanese Ambassador, and Saburo Kurusu, special envoy, because of the insult-

'Tora, Tora, Tora' Signals Complete Surprise Attack

HONOLULU, Dec. 8— The Japanese word for tiger, repeated and repeated "Tora, Tora, Tora," is believed to have been the message sent by planes to the Imperial Fleet that the raid on Pearl Harbor was a complete surprise.

Sources said today a prearranged earlier signal, "To-To-To," indicated that the first wave of bombers were committed.

Japanese submarines reportedly sank an American transport carrying lumber 1,300 miles from San Francisco.

News of these surprise attacks fell like a bombshell on Washington. President Roosevelt immediately ordered the country and the Army and Navy onto a full war footing.

'ENEMY' PLANES REPORTED OVER SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7 - Two formations of "many planes," described as undoubtedly enemy aircraft, flew over the Bay area tonight, announced Brig. Gen. William O. Ryan, commander of the Fourth Interceptor Command, after a progressive blackout had blotted out naval and military establishments and whole cities along the Pacific Coast.

Contributing to the "war of nerves" was the rapid spreading of conflicting reports, the wailing of sirens and broadcast silence.

The planes were first detected 100 miles at sea.

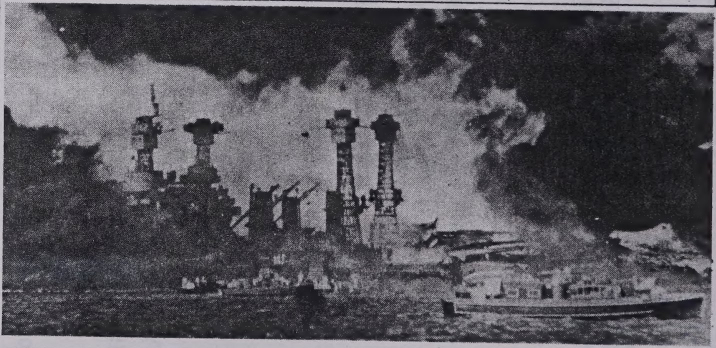
'BATTLESHIP ROW' IS ABLAZE



THUNDEROUS EXPLOSIONS FROM JAPANESE TORPEDOES AND BOMBS CRIPPLE GIANT U.S. BATTLESHIPS AT PEARL HARBOR

By Dean Vincent
Special to THE NEWS

HONOLULU, Dec. 7 - Battleship Row, heart of the U.S. Pacific Fleet, was dealt a devastating blow this morning by Japanese aircraft.

The giant warships, clustered around Ford Island in Pearl Harbor, were the prime target for the countless enemy bombers, torpedo-planes and fighters.

The Arizona was struck the hardest, taking five torpedos and several direct bomb hits that sunk her with 1,150 men trapped in her hull.

Nearby, the Oklahoma was stricken with five torpedo blasts, two even as she capsized, with a reported 400 crew members below her decks.

Two torpedos slammed into the Utah, a former battleship turned into a target vessel, and sent her blazing.

Six torpedos and a halo of bombs rocked and sank the West Virginia at her moorings.

The California, engulfed in flames and dense smoke, ordered her crew to abandon ship as she settled at the stern.

The only battleship to actually get underway, despite being hit with torpedos, was the Nevada. But the ship suddenly burst into flames and ran aground purposely to avoid sinking at the mouth of the channel and block the entrance for other ships.
